A story book written in age-appropriate, loving language and tells the story of how a child came to be via Gestational Carrier. The book is written for 3-5 year old children. Using bears as characters, the illustrations depict the typical day in the life of a child interacting with their parent. The book describes a baby conceived by in vitro fertilization using the mother's egg and the father's sperm. The embryo is placed into the uterus of another woman called a gestational carrier. This woman carries and delivers the baby. The child is genetically related to the mother and father, but not the gestational carrier. This book does not use the terms sperm or egg. It does use the term gestational carrier.
